Telecommuter Policy Overview

Effective: February 15, 2023

PARTNERS of the AMERICAS

Connect • Serve • Change Lives

Objectives

- Learn the three type of telecommuting agreement Partners' offers
- Review Telecommuter Request Form
- Understand Next Steps

Expectation

1. Comply with all Partners policies and procedures and maintain standards for performance, work hours, workload, meeting attendance, and required deliverables.

2. Must be available with high-speed internet, sufficient for high-quality video conferencing, when working.

3. Telecommuting employees may not accept any other employment or non-Partners work assignments during work hours.

4. May still be expected to return to the Home Office and/or other specified location(s) for certain meetings and organization-wide. Every effort will be made to provide ample notice.

5. Telecommuting arrangements are not a substitute for childcare or other dependent care.

6. Except for a laptop, Partners is not responsible for providing or paying for any additional equipment and returning the equipment is at the employee's expense.

Three (3) types of telecommuting arrangements:

1. Ad Hoc
2. Partial
3. Full

Telecommuter Agreement #1

Ad Hoc:

- Informal temporary remote arrangements with no expectation of ongoing continuance
  - inclement weather, certain family or medical leave circumstances, special projects, medical appointments, or personal travel.
- This arrangement is authorized on an as-needed basis, by the direct supervisor in an email (Cc poahr@partners.net).

Telecommuting Agreements #2

Partial:

- Formal arrangement
  - employee's normal work schedule is in a location outside of the Home Office on non-required in-office days.

  - This arrangement is authorized by the direct supervisor in an email (Cc poahr@partners.net).

Telecommuting Agreements #3

Full

- Formal arrangement
  - employee works in a location outside of the Home Office every day of the week.
  - This arrangement is authorized after the direct supervisor, unit lead, HR VP and Executive Leadership Team approve the telecommuting arrangement request form.

Full

- When approved….
  - Trial basis for the first three months.
  - At the end of the trial period, the employee and direct supervisor will each complete an evaluation and make recommendations to continue, modify, or nullify the telecommuting arrangement.
  - If continued, the telecommuting arrangement will be valid through the end of the calendar year in which it was signed.
  - To continue the telecommuting arrangement in the following calendar year, the employee must submit a new telecommuting arrangement request as an attachment to their annual performance review self-evaluation.
