1) FEDERAL AWARD IDENTIFICATION NUMBER (FAIN):

SBR25023GR0031

2) FEDERAL SHARE OF AWARD:

$(USD)150,000.00

3) PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVES OF AWARD:

1. Purpose:

PARTNERS OF THE AMERICAS, INC. (hereinafter referred to as the Recipient), is hereby provided a federal award, the purpose of which is to:

support “100,000 Strong Brazil Specific Competition Round” project. The Recipient shall work with WHA and PAS-Brazil to build on the momentum to leverage potential new investments from the National Industry Confederation Training Institute (SENAI) and launch a second Brazil-specific 100K Innovation Fund Competition Round. Through strategic collaboration between WHA/PDA, PAS-Brazil, the Recipient, SENAI, and potential new investments from the private sector, will stimulate more 100K-branded higher education partnerships that will increase student training and mobility opportunities to/from Brazil and the United States.

The Recipient shall carry out this award in accordance with its proposal dated 2023-09-12 and any revisions to which both parties agree to in writing.

The Recipient's proposal and any subsequent negotiated revisions are hereby incorporated by reference.

2. Objectives and Expected Outcomes: The Recipient agrees to perform the program and meet the specific objectives below:

Develop new partnerships between Higher Education Institutions from Brazil and the U.S. as part of the U.S. Mission in Brazil's objective of advancing broader educational opportunities in the U.S. This will also strengthen educational ties between both countries and support the U.S. Mission in Brazil's actions in educational cooperation, promote United States as the preferred destination for prospective Brazilian students seeking study abroad opportunities; strengthen the institutional linkages between the United States and Brazil's Higher Education Institutions, facilitating the development of new partnerships; in a collaborative effort to promote mutual understanding;

Statement of Objectives: The recipient agrees to:
• Identify, lead communications, and engage with prospective non-USG donors for potential resource cultivation to support 100K Brazil-focused grant competition;
• Secure non-USG commitments from regional private/public sectors to leverage the USG-funds to support 100K Brazil-USA competition and HEI partnerships (2024-2025);
• Launch a new 100K Strong competition in Spring 2024 and implement 100K Strong grant activities in collaboration with WHA/PDA and Post-Brazil, including promotion, 100K grant evaluation/selection process, and providing/monitoring 100K Strong sub-awards to teams of Brazilian-U.S. grant winning HEIs; and,
• Build 100K Strong brand sustainability in Brazil and conduct robust 100K Brazil communication plans (e.g.: 100K website, 100K webinars, social media, press releases).

MANDATORY USE OF US EMBASSY AND CONSULATES IN BRAZIL, AND BICENTENNIAL LOGOS IN PROJECTS FUNDED BY THE US GOVERNMENT

1. All programs, projects, assistance, and activities partially or fully funded under this award must appropriately display the U.S. Embassy and Consulates in Brazil logo. The U.S.-Brazil Bicentennial logo must also be used, but only on projects taking place in 2024. Recipients wishing to use the Department of State seal in addition to the U.S. flag must receive prior written permission from the GO.

2. The U.S. Embassy and Consulates in Brazil logo must be prominently displayed on all materials for all projects. The Bicentennial logo must be used similarly but only on materials related to 2024 projects, ensuring both logos are clearly identifiable and distinguishable.

3. The size and placement of the U.S. Embassy and Consulates in Brazil logo, as well as the Bicentennial logo (for 2024 projects), should be equal to or greater than any other logos or branding elements used, ensuring their prominence and visibility.

4. Prior to printing, creating, or publishing any materials or goods that include the U.S. Embassy and Consulates in Brazil logo or the Bicentennial logo, beneficiaries must obtain written consent from the GO in charge of the project.

Publications, articles, or similar products resulting from the award must also acknowledge the support of the Department and include a disclaimer of official endorsement as follows: “This [article] was funded [in part] by a grant from the United States Department of State. The opinions, findings and conclusions stated herein are those of the author[s] and do not necessarily reflect those of the United States Department of State.”

The recipient must ensure that this disclaimer is included on all brochures, flyers, posters, billboards, or other graphic artwork produced under the award.

BENEFICIARY PROTECTION

Grantee staff members, volunteers, other non-staff personnel, consultants, and contractors are expected to conduct themselves in a way that demonstrates their commitment to the protection and safeguarding of grant program beneficiaries, especially children (0-18 years old).

Conduct that undermines the protection and safeguarding of beneficiaries, including but not limited to conduct prohibited in the grantee's standards of conduct policy for engagement with beneficiaries or that violates local or international legal requirements with regard to children, is prohibited under this award provision.

The grantee will immediately inform the Grants Officer of all reasonable suspicions that a staff member, volunteer, other non-staff personnel, consultant, or contractor has engaged in discriminatory, harassing, or abusive conduct or violated local legal requirements regarding children. Similarly, the grantee will immediately inform the Grants Officer if one program participants is suspected of engaging in such behavior with another participant. Such a situation would not generally be grounds in and of itself for early termination of an award, but mishandling of such a situation by failing to take action to preserve safety and security of beneficiaries is considered grounds for early termination of the award. Required actions include taking steps to: 1) inform the Grants Officer, 2) preserve documentation regarding the incident, 3) separate the alleged perpetrator from suspected victims, and 4) take appropriate follow up actions in consultation with the Grants Officer, such as conducting an investigation, retraining of staff, reporting to local law enforcement, and/or dismissal of the offending individual.

FUNDING LIMITATIONS FOR THE UNITED NATIONS RELIEF AND WORKS AGENCY (UNRWA)

None of the funds awarded under this agreement may be made available for subawards, direct financial support, or otherwise used to provide any payment or transfer to United Nations Relief and Works Agency (UNRWA).

PROHIBITION ON FUNDING ACTIVITIES THAT ENCOURAGE MASS-MIGRATION CARAVANS TOWARDS THE US SOUTHWEST BORDER

None of the funds awarded under this grant may be made available to encourage, mobilize, publicize, or manage mass-migration caravans towards the United States southwest border. Funds may not be made available for legal counseling on the United States asylum process; and/or for referrals to legal or representation in the United States.

Funds may only be used for cash cards for use in the country in which they are provided or to facilitate assisted voluntary returns and other purposes that do not encourage, mobilize, publicize, or manage mass migration caravans towards the United States southwest border. The provision of humanitarian assistance is permitted.
