Partners of the Americas

Budget Narrative

Introduction

In this section, Partners of the Americas (POA) provides a detailed explanation of the budget line items and the methods used to determine costs associated with implementing the proposed project strategy. POA has established sound financial management and internal control systems ensuring expenditures are reasonable, allowable, and classified in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP). POA uses a cloud-based accounting software and is subject to an annual A-133 audit. The Finance and Administration (F&A) department is staffed with a talented group of professionals with over 40 years of combined experience in the fields of finance and accounting, auditing and, managing the financial reporting for Federal grants, contracts, and overseeing cooperative agreements with USDOL. The finance department is comprised of a Director of Grants and Contract Compliance, two Field Finance Officers, a Budget Analyst, an Account Payable Officer, a Controller, and a Chief Financial Officer (CFO). The F&A team works closely with project staff at POA's headquarters (HQ) and foreign field office staff to monitor spending, ensure that all costs are reasonable and allowable, and support project staff in country to implement the project in accordance with USG rules and regulations (particularly 2 CFR 200), local laws, as well as POA's internal policies. Our F&A department also reviews spending with Project Directors on a monthly basis and assists with the oversight of sub-recipients, end-of-project reporting, and other aspects of project monitoring.

POA uses a robust and cost-effective strategy to determine cost allocation in accordance with USG cost principles, local laws, and internal policies. Our proposed budget for this project was developed by conducting thorough price analyses to identify reasonable, realistic, and fair market values for all projected expenses. Our budget estimates were also calculated based on past experience in implementing effective and cost-efficient USG-funded programs. POA follows US and local labor laws to determine salary and fringe benefits for all employees identified in this proposal. Indirect Costs have been applied in accordance with POA's most recent NICRA agreement approved by our cognizant agency, USAID. In preparing the budget, POA has minimized administrative and support costs for managing the project to the extent possible to maximize the funds available for project activities, while still ensuring overall award compliance and capacity building for implementing partners.

Direct Labor

POA will follow both U.S. and local labor laws for all employees identified in this proposal. Salaries are based on comparable organizations and projects, information gathered in-country, market analysis, and other data. Proposed salaries are also consistent with those paid to other personnel engaged in similar work within and outside of POA. Level of effort (LOE) budgeted is based on the scope of the program proposed. POA has applied a 3.5% yearly increase to account for inflation and for merit increases for all staff which is consistent with POA policies. Following is a brief description of positions proposed.

1.1. Conduct a participatory diagnosis on gender equality and representation issues within WO

Participatory diagnosis on gender equality and gender representation issues within WO:

The diagnosis corresponds to the generation of knowledge that allows the analysis and identification of the causes of two main problems: the characterization of working women and their needs, as well as the substantive equality and representation of women in WO. The information generated through the general diagnosis will determine the development of all the activities of the project's Outcome 1. CEREAL will use data collection instruments, including interviews and surveys, to apply to their database of workers, with particular focus on the experiences of women. At a cost of $20,000 in Year 2, the estimated total cost is $20,000.

1.2 Identify and train young women workers in leadership, negotiation, and conflict resolution

Training of young women workers in leadership, negotiation and conflict resolution:
After identifying and recruiting young women to become WO leaders, the project will train them to become effective organizational strategists and negotiators, skilled at conflict resolution, both within WO and with employers when issues arise. Training activities will consider the geographic contexts and specific sectors where the identified young women workers work. CEREAL will design a diplomado on the USMCA and the Labor Reform, which will include theoretical and practical sessions in leadership and conflict resolution, including cases of violations of labor. This training will be delivered in Jalisco by academics from the universities with which CEREAL has agreements, such as ITESO, IBERO Puebla, IBERO CDMX, IBERO León and Universidad de Guadalajara, in a hybrid modality of 70% in-person and 30% virtual. At a cost of $2,116 in Year 1, $12,696 per year in Year 2 through Year 4, and $4,232 in Year 5. The estimated total cost of activity 2 is $44,436.

1.4 Develop strategic plans for WO to comply with the gender provisions of the Mexican Labor Reform.

Strategic plans for WO to comply with the gender provisions of the Mexican labor reform:
Develop a strategic plan with each participating WO and their leaders, for the development of election manuals and voting protocols. At a cost of $5,583 in Year 2, the total cost is $5,583.

1.6 Develop protocols focused on eliminating violence and harassment within WO membership:

Protocols focused on eliminating violence and harassment among WO members:

The development of protocols will include workshops for workers and WO representatives to better understand on a) discrimination and labor violence; b) the consequences of violence and discrimination on the lives of women workers; c) content and importance of relevant national and international legal instruments and standards; d) the basic content for the development of protocols; e) statutory reform and WO procedures for addressing violence; and f) sanctions. Each workshop will produce a preliminary version of a protocol for each WO, which will be refined in a final workshop with WO leadership. The final version of this protocol will be submitted to WO for formal approval. The drafting of the protocols will include an analysis and review of specific cases; interventions of the WO commissions for care; and the establishment of actions for the sanction, non-repetition, and reparation of damages, and will include trainings for members of WO commissions and leaders that will be involved in addressing these types of cases. At a cost of $5,250 in Year 2, the estimated total cost of this activity is $5,250.

1.7 Develop a toolkit for WO to support the integration of the gender perspective and the increase of women members

Toolkit for substantive equality and the unionization of women:
Development of a toolkit with several methods to mainstream substantive equality within WO structures and processes, including the use of gender-inclusive language in WO statues, registration, and other internal documents, and plans for the inclusion and promotion of women members. Additionally, the toolkits encourage women to take on those leadership roles and seeks to and combat all forms of discrimination and GBVH within WO. The project will establish criteria to review existing WO documents for use of sexist or gender exclusive language and will develop a toolkit to help WO leaders identify and correct the use of such language. Activities in the tool kit will explain how to avoid using language that reinforces inequalities, stereotypes, or the exclusion of women and other protected groups, and suggest gender-inclusive alternatives. At a cost of $2,856 in Year 1, $5,712 per year in Year 2 through Year 4, and $2,856 in Year 5 the estimated total cost is: $ 22,848.
