Gentlemen:

On the basis of your stated purposes and the understanding that your operations will continue as evidenced to date or will conform to those proposed in your ruling application, we have concluded that you are exempt from Federal income tax as an organization described in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Any changes in operation from those described, or in your character or purposes, must be reported immediately to your District Director for consideration of their effect upon your exempt status. You must also report any change in your name or address.

You are not required to file Federal income tax returns so long as you retain an exempt status, unless you are subject to the tax on unrelated business income imposed by section 511 of the Code, in which event you are required to file Form 990-T. Our determination as to your liability for filing the annual information return, Form 990-A, is set forth above. That return, if required, must be filed on or before the 15th day of the fifth month after the close of your annual accounting period indicated above.

Contributions made to you are deductible by donors as provided in section 170 of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers or gifts to or for your use are deductible for Federal estate and gift tax purposes under the provisions of section 2055, 2106 and 2522 of the Code.

You are not liable for the taxes imposed under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (social security taxes) unless you file a waiver of exemption certificate as provided in such act. You are not liable for the tax imposed under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act. Inquiries about the waiver of exemption certificate for social security taxes should be addressed to this office, as should any questions concerning excise, employment or other Federal taxes.

This is a determination letter. (OVER)

Very truly yours,

Irving Machiz

Gentlemen:

Thank you for submitting the information shown below. We have made it a part of your file.

The changes indicated do not adversely affect your exempt status and the exemption letter issued to you continues in effect.

Please let us know about any future change in the character, purpose, method of operation, name or address of your organization. This is a requirement for retaining your exempt status.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely yours,

District Director

(2) Add new Articles III, IV, V, VI, VII and VIII as follows:

FILED
MAR 22 1994

BY: [illegible]

DC-110125.1

ARTICLE III

The corporation is a private, apolitical, nonsectarian, not-for-profit organization, whose purpose is to promote friendship, communication and understanding among the peoples of Latin America, the Caribbean and the United States. The corporation links partnership representing countries and regions from the Americas for the following purposes, among others:

(1) To promote international relationships through joint initiatives of the peoples of the Americas in an active volunteer association so that through common efforts, interchange and mutual cooperation, the common goal of advancing the social and economic well-being of the peoples of the Americas based upon considerations of human dignity and mutual responsibility may be encouraged and otherwise fostered;

(2) To work together on common interests such as the educational, cultural, health, social, agricultural, and economic fields, and to aid in every possible manner in the implementation of projects of mutual interest for the American communities; and

(3) To establish additional avenues of friendship, understanding, involvement, and mutual respect among the peoples of the Americas.

ARTICLE IV

The qualifications for, dues, admission to membership and voting eligibility of members shall be as provided for in the By-laws. The Board of Directors may establish from time to time additional classes of members consistent with the purposes of the corporation, these Articles and the By-laws. The sole and exclusive responsibility of the members shall be the right to vote in the election of officers and members of the Board of Directors, and all other authority regarding the governance and management of the corporation shall reside in those so elected.

ARTICLE V

The affairs of the corporation shall be managed by a Board of Directors of at least three persons. The By-laws shall provide for officers of the corporation which shall include, but not be limited to, a Chairperson, Vice Chairperson, Treasurer and Secretary who shall also serve as members of the Board of Directors. The number of directors and the manner in which they shall be nominated and elected, shall be provided for in the By-laws.

ARTICLE VI

In all events and under all circumstances, and notwithstanding merger, consolidation, reorganization, termination, dissolution, or winding up of the corporation, voluntary or involuntary or by operation of law, or upon amendment of the Articles of the corporation:

a. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation and the corporation shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements), any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

ARTICLE VII

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed in accordance with the purposes set out in Article III hereof, for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code), or to the federal government, state or local government, for a public purpose, as the Board of Directors shall determine. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the United States District Court for the District of Columbia exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE VIII

The principal office of the corporation is to be located in Washington, D.C.

THIRD: The amendment was adopted in the following manner:

The amendment was adopted at an annual meeting of members held on November 20, 1993, at which a quorum was present, and the amendment received at least two-thirds of the votes which members present or represented by proxy at such meeting were entitled to cast.
