Session Objectives

Learning Objective: To evolve the creative toolbox to promote strategic thinking, problem-solving, and innovation.

At the end of this module, team members will be able to:

- Take the initiative to identify and solve work-related problems.
- Foster and model an organizational work culture that encourages creative thinking and innovation.
- Consider alternative ways to view or define problems - not constrained by conventional thinking and established approaches.
- Understand and effectively manage the creative process of others; facilitate effective brainstorming.
- Mentor staff to combine ideas in unique ways or make connections between disparate ideas.

Community Rules

- Strive for an open and dynamic conversation
- Use the chat, reactions, or other features to engage with others
- Cameras on! Request for the camera to be on whenever possible, especially in breakout rooms
- Permission to self-regulate (breaks, phone calls, speaking time, etc.)
- Have fun!
- Anything else?

THE SILLY COW EXERCISE

What is creative and innovative thinking?

- Creativity is centered around unique/new thoughts and or knowledge that holds the potential for idea generation
- Innovation is the ability to turn that creative idea into a viable solution

Techniques to Expand Thinking

1. Consider, How would a child approach this problem?
2. Make associations
3. Clarify and validate assumptions
4. Connect unrelated ideas, solutions or resources
5. Find substitutes to modify your current approach
6. Think about the future

The Six Hats Explained

1. White- put on the white hat and think only in neutral terms. Ask for and only use facts. Strip away feelings
2. Red- react based on your emotions. What does your heart tell you to do?
3. Black- what are the negatives? Test out potential weaknesses. Ask, why should we not do this?
4. Yellow- think positively. Look at the option as if it's only full of promise
5. Green- remove all negative feelings. Think innovatively. Consider only how to make the idea grow creatively
6. Blue- coordinate all the other perspectives to produce the strongest possible approach

Case Study Activity

- Each group independently reads the case study
- Each group work together to brainstorm and apply each of the thinking hats
- Report out to the larger group

Copyright 2023: Brighter Strategies

Let’s Practice Breakout Activity

- Person 1 shares a life or work situation that they are comfortable speaking to their partner about
- Together talk through each thinking hat and apply each hat to the situation
- Switch- person two shares and person one helps them apply each hat to the situation
