Dear Applicant:

In our opinion, the form of the plan identified above is acceptable under section 403(b) of the Internal Revenue Code for use by eligible employers for the benefit of their employees. This opinion relates only to the acceptability of the form of the plan under the Internal Revenue Code. It is not an opinion of the effect of other Federal or local statutes.

You must furnish a copy of this letter, a copy of the approved plan, and copies of any subsequent amendments to each eligible employer who adopts this plan.

This letter considers the changes contained in the final regulations under Code section 403(b) (sections 1.403(b)-1 through 1.403(b)-11) that were published on July 26, 2007 (72 FR 41128) and the applicable requirements of the 2012 Cumulative List of Changes in Plan Qualification Requirements contained in Notice 2012-76, 2012-62 I.R.B. 775.

Our opinion on the acceptability of the form of the plan is not a ruling or determination as to whether an eligible employer's plan satisfies Code section 403(b). However, an eligible employer that adopts this plan may rely on this letter with respect to the satisfaction of its plan under Code section 403(b), as provided for in Rev. Proc. 2013-22, 2013-18 I.R.B. 985, and outlined below. The terms of the plan must be followed in operation.

An eligible employer that adopts this Code section 403(b) prototype plan may rely upon an opinion letter issued for the plan that the form of the adopting eligible employer's plan satisfies the requirements of Code section 403(b) if the plan is a Code section 414(d) governmental plan or if the adopting eligible employer is a Church or Qualified Church Controlled Organization (QCCO) as defined in Revenue Procedure 2013-22. Our opinion does not constitute a determination that the plan is a governmental plan or that the adopting employer is a Church or QCCO.

An eligible employer that adopts this Code section 403(b) plan which is not a Code section 414(d) government plan or a plan of a Church or Qualified Church Controlled Organization (QCCO) as defined in Revenue Procedure 2013-22 may rely upon this letter issued for the plan that the form of the adopting eligible employer's plan satisfies the requirements of Code section 403(b), except with respect to whether nonelective contributions under the plan satisfy the requirements of Code sections 401(a)(4) and 410(b).

In general, our opinion may not be relied on with respect to the requirements of Code section 415 if the adopting eligible employer or any of its related employers maintains another Code section 403(b) plan covering any of the same participants as this Code section 403(b) plan, unless the other plan is also a Code section 403(b) prototype plan. For this purpose, the term "related employers" means all employers that are aggregated with the adopting eligible employer under Code sections 414(b) and (c) (each as modified by Code section 415(h)), (m), and (o), including Regulation 1.414(c)-5. See Regulations 1.415(c)-1(d) and 1.415(f)-1(f) for special rules applicable to Code section 403(b) plans.

This letter may not be relied upon with respect to issues of an inherently factual nature.

This is not a ruling or determination with respect to any language in the plan that reflects Section 3 of the Defense of Marriage Act, Pub. L. 104-199, 110 Stat. 2419 (DOMA) or U.S. v. Windsor, 570 U.S. 12 (2013), which invalidated that section, except to the extent that the definition of spouse is relevant for purposes of required minimum distributions under Code section 401(a)(9) and spousal rollover rights under Code section 402(c)(9).

This letter does not rule on whether this plan meets any requirements of a multiple employer plan.

This letter does not express an opinion with respect to the terms of any investment arrangements under the plan of any adopting eligible employer or any other documents that may be incorporated by reference into an adopting eligible employer's plan. In the event of any conflict between the terms of the plan and the terms of investment arrangements under the plan (or any other documents incorporated by reference into the plan) the terms of the plan shall govern.

This letter does not express an opinion, and may not be relied upon, with respect to whether any plan is subject to the requirements of Title I of ERISA or whether a plan satisfies any of those requirements.

If you, the prototype sponsor, have any questions concerning the IRS processing of this case, please call the above telephone number. This number is only for use of the sponsor. Individual participants and/or adopting eligible employers with questions concerning the plan should contact the prototype sponsor. The plan's adoption agreement must include the sponsor's address and telephone number for inquiries by adopting employers.

You should keep this letter as a permanent record. Please notify us if you modify or discontinue sponsorship of this plan.

Sincerely Yours,

Karen D. Truss

Additionally, if more than one Employer Contribution is selected in this Item Q, the requirements to receive each Contribution selected should be the same. Providing different requirements will require testing to determine if the nondiscrimination requirement of Code Section 401(a)(4) is met. For example, a Qualified Nonelective Contribution made to each person who is an Active Participant on the last day of the payroll period and a Discretionary Contribution allocated to each person who was an Active Participant at any time during the Plan Year will require nondiscrimination testing. If the ACP Test Safe Harbor is satisfied using Qualified Nonelective Contributions, Item O(1)(b) or O(2), the Additional Contributions and Discretionary Contributions selected under this item should be made for or allocated to each person who is an Active Participant at any time during the Plan Year to avoid nondiscrimination testing.*

- 1) ☐ QUALIFIED NONELECTIVE CONTRIBUTIONS. (Cannot select if ACP Test Safe Harbor is satisfied using Qualified Nonelective Contributions, Item O(1)(b) or O(2).) The amount of the Qualified Nonelective Contributions shall be equal to the amount determined in (a), (b), or (d) below. (Select at least one of (a), (b), or (d). Only one of (a) or (b) may be selected. Select (c), if applicable.)
- a) ☐ SET AMOUNT, PAY FORMULA. The Employer shall make Qualified Nonelective Contributions in an amount equal to (Select one.)

- b) ☐ DISCRETIONARY, PAY FORMULA. Qualified Nonelective Contributions may be made for each Plan Year in an amount determined by the Employer. The amount allocated to each eligible person shall be equal to the Qualified Nonelective Contributions multiplied by the ratio of such person's Annual Pay for the Plan Year to the total Annual Pay of all such persons. The Qualified Nonelective Contributions shall be allocated to each person meeting the requirements in Item R, unless otherwise specified in (i) or (ii) below.
- i) ☐ The Qualified Nonelective Contributions shall be allocated to each person who was an Active Participant at any time during the Plan Year.

For purposes of this limit, Pay shall be the Pay used for purposes of the ACP Test for such Plan Year. If (a) or (b) above is selected, these Qualified Nonelective Contributions are in addition to those specified in (a) or (b). If the Plan is treated as separate plans because it is mandatorily disaggregated under the regulations of Code Section 410(b), a separate Qualified Nonelective Contribution may be determined for each separate plan.

These Qualified Nonelective Contributions may be used to reduce the Excess Aggregate Contributions, as defined in Plan Section 3.08. Such Contributions shall be allocated first to the eligible person under the Plan (or separate plan) with the lowest Pay used for purposes of the ACP Test for such Plan Year, then to the eligible person under the Plan (or separate plan) with the next lowest Pay, and so forth, in each case subject to applicable limits of Plan Section 3.07. Such allocation shall not exceed 5% of such person's Pay used for purposes of the ACP Test for such Plan Year. (See Plan Section 3.08.) These Qualified Nonelective Contributions shall be allocated only to Nonhighly Compensated Employees who meet the requirements in Item R, unless otherwise specified in (i) or (ii) below.

- i) ☐ These Qualified Nonelective Contributions shall be allocated only to Nonhighly Compensated Employees who were Active Participants at any time during the Plan Year.

- 3) ☒ DISCRETIONARY CONTRIBUTIONS. Discretionary Contributions may be made for each Plan Year in an amount determined by the Employer. Discretionary Contributions and Forfeitures, if applicable, shall be allocated as of the last day of the Plan Year to persons meeting the requirements in Item R using Annual Pay for the Plan Year. The amount allocated to such person shall be equal to the Discretionary Contributions multiplied by the ratio of such person's Annual Pay to the total Annual Pay for all such persons.

4) FORFEITURE APPLICATION.

Forfeitures of Nonvested Accounts when a Participant receives a distribution of his entire Vested Account, as described in Plan Section 3.05, shall occur on the first day of the Plan Year following the Plan Year in which the Participant receives, or is deemed to receive, the distribution, unless otherwise specified in (a) below.
