The Board of Directors will appoint a President of the Congress to convene and preside over all meetings of the Congress; provided however, that the position of President of the Congress will alternate between a person resident in the United States and a person resident in Latin America or the Caribbean.

b. Notice. At least sixty days' advance written notice of the date, time and place of the Congress and a provisional agenda will be given to the Chapters of the Partners of the Americas.

c. Representation and Participation. Each Chapter may designate a single voting Delegate to represent it at the Congress. It is expected that the highest elected officer of each Chapter will be the Delegate and such individuals will be so recognized by the Partners of the Americas; provided, however, that by appropriate action and certification to the Partners of the Americas, a Chapter may designate an alternate to represent the Chapter at such meeting. Officers and board members of the Partners of the Americas and Chapters, Individual Members, and the President of the Partners of the Americas may participate in discussions and debates. However, only the Delegate of a Chapter in Good Standing will be entitled to vote, with each such Chapter having only one vote.

d. Quorum. Unless otherwise provided for in these By-Laws, the Articles of Incorporation, or by statute, Chapters in Good Standing having at least one-tenth of the votes entitled to be cast shall constitute a quorum. A provision for absentee voting, established by the Elections Committee, will allow Chapters in Good Standing to be present for purposes of establishing a quorum. When a quorum is once present to call to order a meeting of the Chapters, it is not broken by the subsequent withdrawal of any Chapter.

d. Tie Votes. In the event a tie cannot be resolved with one run-off ballot in this fashion, the tie votes will be resolved by drawing straws. At any Congress held by means of Electronic Forum, successive run-off elections shall be held by absentee ballots pursuant to policies and procedures established by the Elections Committee.

e. Absentee Voting. A provision for absentee voting, established by the Elections Committee, will allow Chapters in Good Standing to be present for purposes of establishing a quorum and to vote by mail, facsimile, or electronic mail in the election of members of the Board of Directors to be elected by the Chapters.
