BY-LAWS

OF

PARTNERS OF THE AMERICAS FOUNDATION

ARTICLE I. OFFICES

1.1 REGISTERED OFFICE. The corporation shall maintain a registered office in the District of Columbia and a registered agent thereat, subject to change in the manner prescribed by law.

1.2 OTHER OFFICES. The corporation may have such other offices and places of business within or without the District of Columbia as the Board of Directors shall determine.

ARTICLE II. DIRECTORS

2.1 NUMBER. The number of directors comprising the full Board of Directors of the corporation shall be seven (7) who shall be from two classes as set forth in the Articles of Incorporation. Directors need not be United States citizens or residents of the District of Columbia. The number of directors may be increased or decreased from time to time by amendment to these By-Laws, but shall never be less than five and the ratio of directors from the classes set forth in the Articles of Incorporation shall remain as therein provided. The President of the National Association of Partners of the Americas, Inc. ("NAPA") shall be an ex officio ("without vote") member of the Board of Directors.

2.2 POWERS. The management of all the business, property and affairs of the corporation shall be vested in the Board of Directors. The Board may exercise all of the powers of the corporation and do all lawful acts and things (including the adoption of such rules and regulations for the conduct of its meetings, the exercise of its powers, and the management of the corporation) as it may deem proper, consistent with District of Columbia law, the Articles of Incorporation and these By-Laws.

2.3 ANNUAL MEETING. A regular annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held at the principal office of the corporation, wherever located, or at such other place, and at such time, as shall be determined by the Board of Directors and designated in the notice or waiver of notice of the meeting.

2.4 REGULAR AND SPECIAL MEETINGS. The Board of Directors may provide by resolution the time and place, either within or without the District of Columbia, for the holding of regular meetings, other than the annual meeting, of the Board of Directors without other notice than such resolution. The Board of Directors shall meet at least once each year in addition to the annual meeting. The Chairperson may call, and upon written request signed by a majority of the members of the Board of Directors, the Secretary shall call special meetings of the Board of Directors. Such meetings shall be held at such time and place, and for such purposes, as may be designated in the notice of meeting by the person or persons calling the meeting.

2.5 QUORUM AND ACTION. No fewer than one-half of the members of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. At any duly held meeting at which a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors present shall be the act of the Board of Directors on any question, except where the act of a greater number is required by these By-Laws, the Articles of Incorporation or applicable law.

2.6 ACTION BY WRITTEN CONSENT IN LIEU OF MEETINGS OF DIRECTORS. See Section 5.5 of these By-Laws.

2.7 VACANCIES, REMOVAL. Vacancies in the Board of Directors shall be deemed to exist in the event of the death, resignation or removal of an initial or elected director or in the event of an increase in the number of directors. Any such vacancies which are filled shall be filled by an affirmative vote of a majority of the then remaining Board of Directors, even if less than a quorum of the Board of Directors. Directors elected to fill a vacancy shall hold office for the remaining portion of the term of the director whose death, resignation or removal caused the vacancy or, in the case of an increase in the number of directors, until the next annual meeting of the Board of Directors or until a successor director is elected and qualified, whichever occurs first.

Any one or more of the Class A directors may be removed from office at any time, with or without cause, upon a five-sevenths (70%) majority vote of all of the directors then in office.

2.8 INVESTMENT COMMITTEE. The Board of Directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the entire Board, may designate from its members an Investment Committee, consisting of three or more directors, with such powers and authority (to the extent permitted by law) as may be provided in said resolution. The Investment Comittee shall be charged with the investment and management of the corporation's funds and assets subject to the overall guidance and direction of the Board of Directors, and shall have such other authority and duties as may be delegated to the Investment Committee by the Board of Directors. Any Investment Committee designated by the Board of Directors as herein authorized, shall consist of at least three directors, one of whom shall be the director who is either the Chairman or Vice-Chairman of NAPA. The Treasurer of NAPA shall serve as an ex officio ("without vote") member of the Investment Committee. Unless directed otherwise by the Board of Directors the Investment Committee shall meet at least quarterly.

ARTICLE III. OFFICERS

3.1 EXECUTIVE OFFICERS. The executive officers of the corporation shall be a Chairperson and a Secretary, both of whom shall be elected annually by the Board and shall hold office at the pleasure of the Board, and a Treasurer, who shall be the duly elected treasurer of NAPA. In addition, the Board may elect one or more Vice Presidents. Except for the offices of Chairperson and Secretary, any two or more offices may be held by one person. All vacancies occurring among any of the offices shall be filled by the Board. Any officer may be removed or replaced at any time, with or without cause, by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors present at a regular meeting or at a special meeting called for that purpose. With the exception of the Chairperson, who shall be a director, other officers may but need not be directors.

3.2 OTHER OFFICES. The Board may appoint, remove and replace such other officers, including assistant officers and agents appointed for limited purposes, with any powers and duties it shall deem necessary. The Board may by resolution authorize the Chairperson to appoint and remove such other officers.

3.3 THE CHAIRPERSON OF THE BOARD. The Chairperson of the Board of Directors shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors, shall have general management and control of the business and affairs of the corporation, and shall have and perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors.

3.4 THE VICE PRESIDENT. The Vice President, if one or more be elected, shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as shall be prescribed by the Board of Directors.

3.5 THE TREASURER. The Treasurer shall have custody of all funds, securities and evidences of indebtedness of the corporation. The Treasurer shall receive and give receipts and acquittances for moneys paid in on account of the corporation and shall pay out of the funds on hand all bills, payrolls and other debts of the corporation of whatever nature upon maturity. The Treasurer shall enter regularly in books to be kept for that purpose full and accurate accounts of all moneys received and paid out on account of the corporation. The Treasurer shall deposit all moneys and other valuables in the name and to the credit of the corporation in such depositories as may be designated by the Board of Directors. The Treasurer shall prepare an annual financial report to be presented to the Board of Directors after audit by a firm of independent chartered or certified accountants selected by the Board of Directors. The Treasurer shall perform all other duties incident to the office of the Treasurer and as may be prescribed by the Board.

3.6 THE SECRETARY. The Secretary shall keep the minutes of all proceedings of the Board of Directors and shall attend to the giving and serving of all notices to directors or other notices required by law or these By-Laws. The Secretary shall affix the seal of the corporation to deeds, contracts and other instruments in writing requiring a seal, when duly signed or when so ordered by the Board of Directors. The Secretary shall have charge of such books and papers as the Board of Directors may direct. The Secretary shall perform all other duties incident to the office of Secretary and as may be prescribed by the Board.

ARTICLE IV. PROHIBITED ACTIVITIES

4.1 TAX EXEMPT STATUS. No part of the assets or net earnings, current or accumulated, of the corporation shall accrue to or inure to the benefit of, or be distributable or paid to, and no compensation or payment shall be paid to, its directors or officers, except as a reasonable allowance for actual expenditures or services rendered to or for the corporation. No part of the activities of the corporation shall include carrying on propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publication or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to, any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these By-Laws or of the Articles of Incorporation of the corporation, or any provision of the District of Columbia governing or pertaining to the corporation, the corporation shall not engage in or carry on any activities not permitted to be engaged in or carried on by a corporation described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended (or the corresponding provision of any future federal income tax laws) and exempt from taxation under Section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended (or the corresponding provision of any future federal income tax laws).

ARTICLE V. MISCELLANEOUS

5.1 SEAL. The Board shall provide a corporate seal stating the corporate name, state, and the year of incorporation. The seal shall be in the charge of the Secretary and shall be used as authorized by the By-Laws.

5.2 FISCAL YEAR. The corporation's fiscal year shall consist of twelve months, which shall close annually on December 31.

5.3 CHECKS. All checks, drafts or other orders for the payment of money, notes or other evidences of indebtedness issued in the name of the corporation shall be signed by such officer or officers, agent or agents of the corporation, and in such manner as shall be determined from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors.

5.4 NOTICE AND WAIVER OF NOTICE. Any notice of meetings required to be given under these By-Laws to directors may be waived in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein.

All notices required by these By-Laws shall be given at least 10 days prior to the scheduled date of the noticed meeting and shall be printed or written, and shall be delivered either personally or by telegraph, cable, mail or courier. If mailed, the notice shall be deemed delivered when deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid, addressed to the director at his address as it appears on the records of the corporation.

5.5 ACTION BY WRITTEN CONSENT IN LIEU OF MEETING. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the Board of Directors or of any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing setting forth the action so taken shall be signed by all members of the Board or of such committee, as the case may be, and such consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote.

5.6 AMENDMENTS. These By-Laws may be altered, amended or repealed by a majority (unless the Articles of Incorporation require a larger vote) of each class of Directors at any regular or special meeting thereof; provided, however, that notice of any proposed amendment shall be contained in the resolution or notice regarding the meeting at which action on any such amendment is anticipated.

5.7 MEETINGS BY TELEPHONE. The Board of Directors, or any committee thereof, may conduct meetintgs by means of conference telephone or other means of telecommunications provided that each director who is participating in the meeting is able to hear and identify each other director.
