DRL Scope of Work

Grantee:	Partners of the Americas
Title of Project:	Mexico United 2026
Goal or Statement of Work:	To strengthen Mexico's capacity to identify, prevent and mitigate the impacts of the United 2026 games on the realization of labor rights and human rights guarantees.
Objective 1:	Increase workers' knowledge and ability to understand the applicability of labor law and international labor standards relevant to the United 2026 games.
Objective 2:	Increase engagement and coordination between labor rights organizations, the private sector, and democratic, independent unions on the UHRS and around pre-games planning of United 2026 events, including the implementation of the human rights strategy in each host city, and ways that the Government of Mexico, FIFA and the MFA will address and mitigate labor rights risks associated with the games.
Objective 3:	Strengthen the capacity of civil society actors, independent unions, and workers to monitor and report labor and human right abuses, to prepare to effectively document violations, and make strategic use of reporting and enforcement mechanisms related to the operation of the games.
Objective 4:	Increase public awareness of Mexico's commitments to labor rights regarding the United 2026 games.
